An Adventure Abroad

by Jack Fleming

You don't really think about your home until you have to move, or at least I never thought about my home in Canada until now. Everything changed when my dad got a new job in Colombia.

We are living in an apartment in Cali. I'm going to an international school because I don't speak Spanish yet. My classes are all in English, but my dad's friend is teaching me Spanish at home in the evenings. I have to learn Spanish because we are going to be here for the next five years.

Like the language, everything here is still very new to me. But I like being in the city because it's more interesting than being in a small town. It's easy to get from place to place because the public transportation is excellent, and it's cheaper than back home. There are so many amazing things to see and do.

Life is exciting, but I miss my friends back home. We send emails and text, but it's not like being together. I hope that I can go back home for the holidays, and maybe some of my friends can come and visit, too.

What else do I miss? Well, I miss my old bedroom. It was bigger than my bedroom here. My mom misses the garden because she liked to grow vegetables, but I don't think my Dad and sister miss anything. They like life better here!

Are the sentences true (T) or false (F)?

1. Jack moved to a new home in Canada. _____
2. Jack lives in an apartment in a big city. _____
3. Jack is learning Spanish at the international school. _____
4. It's easier to travel in Jack's home town. _____
5. Jack's friends are definitely going to visit him soon. _____
